| | The meeting with Suffolk Local Libraries was unfortunately cancelled by them. I will be waiting to reschedule to discuss using the Hub with the Library and providing the Warm Rooms space at the same time. b. The Beacon Councillor French needs all entries by 15.03.24 for the May-June edition of The Beacon. | |
| 5972 | Public participation session (15 minutes) to include Police, District and County Councillors Reports. a. Squadron Leader Andy Bell – RAF Mildenhall RAF Mildenhall – Local Council Report – March 2024 Remains very busy with distinct operational focus; sustainment will likely limit non-essential tasks. We are hoping to meet with West Suffolk District Council Forum late May to discuss a range of issues including future infra projects on-base and local housing availability/cost. Current road conditions, particularly pot-holes and the condition of Eriswell Road are of concern to USVF. Base Exercise 07-17 May: 2-week readiness exercise. New SOW CC arrives this summer – Col Adam Moore (vice Col McGill) New 48 FW CC (1*) also arrives this summer but still no nominated replacement. Dates for diary: 9 May: Joan Mann Day 17 Aug: US Air Force Ball 16 Oct: 90th Birthday. b. PC Andrew Green – Community Policing Officer PC Green has been conducting speed checks around end of school time and has not caught anyone speeding. No crimes of significance have been reported locally. c. Councillor Colin Noble – Suffolk County Council Report circulated to councillors and placed in the minute folder. d. Councillor Don Waldron – West Suffolk Council Councillor Waldron has been corresponding with residents regarding the flooding. Although the issue is not to do with WSC as it isn't the Parish Council. He is however chasing the responsible authorities up on this matter. The next step is contacting the press due to the lack of remedy and timescale of the issue. He was promised that environmental health would visit affected residents. Councillor Vickerage asked Councillor Waldron if he could please investigate the discrepancy in the parish precept with regard to the vast number of properties within the parish that aren't council tax paying properties and therefore don't make up the parish precept. | |
